

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1893.

NO. 71

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

Pet Wiesner came down from London and spent Sunday at his father's.

Several Masons from here attended Mr. E. Y. McKeahan's funeral at Corbin Sunday.

The town board of trustees has placed the town levy at 20¢ on the $100 for next year.

Mr. Sam Jennings had his arm badly injured last Friday while loading logs at Pleasant View.

Rev. J. M. Prestidge, of the Baptist church, filled the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday night.

Elder R. H. Robertson's meeting at the Christian church continues with increasing interest. There have been three additions.

A picnicing party spent last Wednesday on Morgan mountain, where plenty of chestnuts can be had and the country for miles around can be seen.

The Kenincky Lumber Co.'s mill sawed out Tuesday. They will be able to give most of their men employment shipping lumber, repairing the mill, &c., until they can get more logs.

Mr. G. W. Chambers and his mother were going to Pine Knot, last week, and as they were ascending a steep hill about five miles below town the horse began to kick and if the buggy had not lodged against a tree all would have gone over a cliff about 60 feet high. No serious damage was done but Mr. C. and his mother received quite a scare.

Mr. P. D. Whitsett has returned from Pennsylvania and thinks he will be able to begin to open his new mines about the 1st of December. Miss Sarah Harman and Mr. Wm. Bowman are both quite ill with typhoid fever. Messrs. Hubble and hubanks, of Garrard county, are here trading a car-load of mares for mules. Mr. J. C. Grisellis went to Madison county Tuesday with a drove of cattle. Mrs. Dr. Adkins is visiting her old home at Campbellsville. Miss Flora Moore is visiting at Brodhead this week.

BRODHEAD.

Misses Belle and Lena Coulter, of Middleburg, are visiting Mrs. J. H. Albright.

Wm. Cummings, who left this country a year ago to make a fortune in the far West, has returned to his old home and says that this country will do him.

Mrs. Sarah Leek, an old lady reported to have been 106 years old, died on the night of the 27th ult., at the home of Wm. Robert. Her death was caused from general debility.

Mrs. Dolly Turpin, one of Brodhead's belles, has gone to Berea to remain for a few weeks and she leaves one of our tall men with a heart trouble. Mr. Wm. Albright, of Barbourville, is visiting Mr. H. L. Thorpe.

Elder W. E. Ellis, of Stanford, is holding a series of meetings this week at the Christian church and in his sermon on last Tuesday night he got very close to some of the members of his church and we do hope they will heed the warning voice.

The baseball game played here between the Mt. Vernon nine and the Brodhead boys resulted, Mt. Vernon 51, Brodhead 35. It was a quiet, nice game as far as disputes were concerned. The Mt. Vernon nine won the respect and praise of our people and their return will be welcomed.

Miss Viola's Circus, Theatrical and Minstrel Show has been holding forth at this place for about four or five days. Notwithstanding those who have attended pronounce it a good show, we learn that they have not been able to pay expenses since they have been in this town. This speaks well for our people.

Last Saturday night Bill Newcomb and Robert Payne met in A. G. Talbot's grocery and very soon engaged in a fight in which it is claimed that Newcomb got the best of Payne. They were separated, but very soon got together again and Newcomb took Payne's pistol from him and knocked him down and was beating him over the head and face at a terrible rate when some one stabbed Newcomb in the back. He was cut with a dirk knife, about six inches in the blade, and the knife was left sticking in his back and remained there until he had run about 150 yards. It was unknown at first who cut Newcomb, but George Reynolds is now accused of the act and has been arrested in Louisville on that charge, though we think it very doubtful who did it. Reynolds' conduct since the affair may implicate him as the guilty man. It has been thought that Newcomb would die, but at this writing he is said to be improving. Bug juice was the cause of the row.

Mr. Appleman, the specialist, will be at the Myers House, next Tuesday and until noon Wednesday to meet his many patients. The doctor's practice is large here and he is giving universal satisfaction.

The Republics rammed the transport Rio de Janeiro which was conveying 1,100 troops to Santos, and 500 of the troops were drowned. Admiral Mello confirms the truth of this report.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

The union meeting will be held at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

R. H. Watson has purchased Col. D. R. Collier's residence on Lexington street.

Local fishermen say that the fish are biting in Dix river as fast as one can throw in.

A. G. Scott is erecting a large paint factory on Richmonnd street. He will build a residence on the Depot street.

Butson & West will put a stock of groceries and hardware in the store room adjoining their new building.

D. M. Lackey has returned from a visit to relatives in Indiana. Young Mr. Stuart, of Crab Orchard, has accepted a position in Batson & West's store.

Hon. John Augustus Williams is here this week delivering lectures to the local Masonic Lodge. Saturday night he will deliver a free lecture at the Courthouse, his subject being "Secrets of Masonry."

The walls on the Miller brick hotel which were damaged by the fire are being covered with a heavy coat of cement. The other repairs to the building are nearly completed and it will be run as a hotel by Mr. E. A. Pascoe.

About a half dozen couples of young folks went permission hunting Wednesday. Each took a basket of edibles and a fine dinner was spread. John Farras was along and not many baskets full of crumbs were picked up after the feast.

Canor Roberts, who was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary at the last term of court, has decided not to take his case to the Court of Appeals and has been taken to Frankfort. He killed the deputy jailer of Madison two years ago.

A protracted meeting is in progress at the Baptist church conducted by Rev. J. A. Booth, of Taylorsville, and the regular pastor, T. H. Campbell. Services are held at 10 a. m. and 7 p. m. The meeting will continue during next week and all are invited to attend.

The oldest inhabitant does not remember when so little interest was manifested in an election as in the coming one. No one seems to know or care much how it goes. Now if things will just remain this way until after next Tuesday we will all stand and sing the long metre doxology.

Circuit Clerk Will Mason has received a patent right machine to be used in selecting juries. It consists of a large wheel with a door in which the names are placed. The wheel is then turned and the names drawn in Louisiana lottery style. Mr. Mason has the machine on exhibition at his office and cheerfully answers all questions.

DANVILLE.

[Advocate.]

The wife of Capt. W. J. Gray, of the West End, died last week, aged 40.

Louney & Perry, confectioners, have assigned assets and liabilities small.

The Georgetown College eleven will be here Saturday to play a championship game with the Centres.

Farris & Whitley sold to J. S. Armstrong 25,000 pound cattle at $1 and to Curry & Ramsey, of Garrard, 50 that would average 1,125 pounds, at $1. They bought of Bunker Bros. $1,000, 1,100 pounds, at 4 cents.

Mr. J. M. Salter, the well-known young farmer, and Miss Zeta Baughman, daughter of Mrs. S. O. Baughman, were married Wednesday afternoon. Both are unusually fortunate in having secured such desirable helpmates.

A. E. Hinckley sold to J. C. Johnson 25 hogs, weight 214 pounds, at $1. John and Homer Baughman sold to Dick Gentry a pair of good 16-hand horse mules for $220. Leander Davison bought of Erasmus Dunn 36 head of 1,150-pound feeders at $1.

The protracted meeting at the Christian church, owing to encouraging signs may be continued throughout this week. There have been nearly 30 additions to the congregations. The meeting at the Fork church is still in progress and is meeting with success. Eleven converts were immersed in Dix river Monday afternoon.

The Duty of Lincoln Democrats to Vote for Miller

[Editor Interior Journal.]

The writer is not a citizen of Lincoln county, but a democrat and voter in this senatorial district and desires very much the election of a democratic senator.

Casey, Boyle and Garrard are pretty equally divided between the two parties. Lincoln county has a large democratic majority and can control the election. The balance of the district conceded to the democrats of Lincoln the right to name the democratic nominee. They have presented in their candidate a lawyer of ability, one who will make the district an able representative and one who as their nominee is entitled to a large majority in Lincoln county. Can the democrats of Lincoln in justice to their brother democrats in the balance of the district, fail to give it to him?

JUSTICE.

The day after the World's Fair closed 48,275 people paid the admission fee.

MIDDLEBURY.

The dry weather continues.

Jefferson Short has moved his saw mill to Yosemite.

Misses Belle and Lena Coulter are at Brodhead visiting Mrs. J. M. Albright. Mrs. Sally Murphy, of Kingsville, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. T. S. Benson.

It is reported that there are many moths and wane a young official of this county will wed one of our sweetest sixteen, and in advance of the happy event we extend hearty congratulations and wish them a happy journey through life.

G. W. Jeter and J. W. McWhorter, Jr., returned from the World's Fair Friday. It is right amusing to hear Mr. Jeter tell how clever he was treated and how a gentleman presented him with a nice pair of bracelets and furnished him lodging free gratis.

J. W. McWhorter, Sr., has bought of J. K. Coffey the water mill here for $2,500. This mill has been in the Coffey family for more than 40 years and it is a great wonder that Mr. Coffey was willing to part with it. Mr. M. will attach an engine to it, and grind the year round instead of a few months in winter and spring.

In writing the article about J. C. Lay some issues since we had no thought of offending the whole republican party and indeed it was not our intention to offend any one. As many of the republicans had been saying hard things about Mr. L., we thought it would not be out of place to say that he was a very common common school teacher, though perhaps that was stronger language than was becoming in us in speaking of a brother teacher, and we hereby withdraw whatever may have seemed offensive. And we can say that Mr. Lay has a fair reputation as a teacher, but do not think that he is egotistical enough to think himself above the ordinary of the profession of teaching, or to think that he can be elected to the State Senate.

ROWLAND.

Elaine Shanks is an expert bicyclist. On Thursday evening he rode his wheel to Stanford to get an INTERIOR JOURNAL and after stopping at the office for several minutes and conversing with friends on the streets, returned here in 18 minutes.

Of course the cranky Prendergast should be hung for murdering Mayor Harrison for failing to give him a position which he had promised him, but something should be done with these high officials who make promises which they never fulfill. Killing is too bad, but their insidious schemes should be told to the public and let it pass on them at the polls.

Mrs. G. W. Goodrich and her little son, Willie, have gone to Virginia to visit relatives. Miss Susan Vanhook, of Brodhead, visited Mrs. J. H. Hilton, this week. Miss Kate Roach, of Corbin, is visiting Mrs. Nannie Chappell. Mrs. J. E. Woolard, of Brodhead, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Hilton. Miss Annie Ashlock is visiting in Lancaster. Mrs. Mag Stevens will move to Somerset soon if reports are true. John Orndoff is ill of typhoid fever. J. W. Carrier, J. W. Chowers and J. R. Orndoff went fox hunting. Orndoff became excited over his dog, "Spot," and was left in the wilderness. He is still roaming at large. Mr. A. G. Harris, of Lebanon Junction, is visiting Mr. Sam Dudderar and looking after personal interests. W. S. Knox, of Danville, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Stephens. Miss Sallie Duderar is book-keeper at L. Hamilton & Son's store.

As the election comes off Tuesday we indulge in the fond hope that the democrats will so organize as to insure a good majority for our worthy candidates and the sound principles which they represent. If you don't like the man just think of your own weak points and swallow the pill. Remember that you are voting for principles and not for men. Don't refuse to take the medicine because you don't like it, but take it for its healing properties and for the good of the system. No man is worthy the name of a democrat, who sulks in camp or seeks to injure the party for his own gain or on account of some personal dislike. No man is large enough to be allowed this privilege. The sickly cry of the bolter that there is no politics in a given race is both absurd and disgusting.

It is a mere pretext to knife some one in the back. The lines should be clearly drawn from constable to president or some impurity will be found in the higher offices; just as the brooks and rivulets must be pure to keep corruption from the larger streams of water.

SAXBY'S QUERRY TO INGERSOLL.—This beautiful song (words and music regular sheet music size) will be mailed to anyone enclosing 5¢ in stamps to D. G. Edwards, General Passenger Agent, C. H. & D. R. R., Cincinnati, Ohio.

A paper mill at Salina, Kas., is now making paper out of wild sunflower stalks. The paper is pronounced superior to that made of straw.

—A paper mill at Salina, Kas., is now making paper out of wild sunflower stalks. The paper is pronounced superior to that made of straw.

—Mrs. Ferdinand Heim, of St. Louis, fell dead while heartily laughing.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

E. J. Woolsey, whose marriage to Mrs. Kate Trimble DeRoode, Covington cut such a figure in swell society, has been sold in New York for $85,000 alleged brokerage debts.

—Mrs. H. J. Potette requests your presence at the marriage of her granddaughter, Maud Muller Miles, to Charles Wheeler Bell, Thursday afternoon, Nov. 16, at 4 o'clock, Christian church, Harrodsburg, Ky. Thus read invitations received by friends here. Miss Maud is well known in Stanford. Mr. Bell is a teacher in the Harrodsburg High School and is highly thought of.

The Stanford Bar has received the following note of thanks: Kind Friends! It is with fear and trembling that I try in my feeble way to express the deep gratitude I feel at having been made the recipient of the handsome tea service which came to me on my wedding day. My friends were very kind in their loving remembrances on that memorable occasion and I feel that I do not merit such kindness. No present, however, was more highly appreciated than the one which came from the hands of my highly esteemed friends whom I now address. I feel it to be an honor of which I will always be proud and could you but read the feeling of gratitude deep down in my heart, I know you would be satisfied of the high appreciation I feel for having been so kindly remembered. With best wishes from myself and husband. Very sincerely, Louise Bailey Gregory.

The marriage of Mr. Will Severance, of this place, and Miss Mary C. Pickett, of Shelby, was celebrated at the residence of the bride's father, Col. James A. Pickett, at high noon Wednesday in the presence of some 40 or more relatives and close friends. The ceremony was performed in the large double parlors, which had been beautifully decorated and festooned, and was said by Eld. Rubelt in a most impressive manner. Miss Anne Shanks was maid of honor and Mr. Joe Severance, Jr., best man. The other attendants were Misses Anne Pickett, Mamie Carters and Virginia Middleton and W. H. Shanks, Carroll Shanks and Rector Pickett. After the knot had been tied and congratulations showered upon the young couple, the guests were invited to an elegant lunch, which was handsomely spread and greatly enjoyed.

At 5 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Severance left for Louisville and yesterday came to Stanford and will for the present live at Mr. Joe Severance's. The bride is one of the loveliest of women. She is handsome, refined, cultivated and amiable and in winning her Mr. Severance has cause for genuine congratulation. He is himself a most worthy young man. Trained in the nurture and admonition of the Lord by a Christian mother and father, he hasn't on arriving at man's estate departed from it, but has proved fully the promise of Scripture. May heaven's richest blessings ever attend them and prove

That marriage, rightly understood Gives to the tender and the good A paradise below.

HUNSTONVILLE.

The huntman, his dog and gun may be seen and heard any time. Quails are plentiful if the gun explosion is evidence.

Mrs. Nannie Owens, who came over from Cumberland Falls to attend the burial of Mrs. Mary Owens, has returned that place.

Contracts have been awarded the early building of a vault in Hustonville cemetery; an investment well made and truly indispensable.

Mr. Walter Greening is erecting an imposing cottage on the Danville pike. Mr. Dave Newburn's new dwelling will be an improvement in that part of town.

Dr. P. S. Humphrey bought of Mrs. Hattie Bishop the property now occupied by Mrs. Adelia Woods, familiarly known as the post-office. Dr. H. will take possession soon.

—Mr. J. G. Weatherford returned Saturday from Chicago and Cincinnati, having purchased his Christmas goods during his absence. Misses Nannie and Bessie Read, of Danville, are visiting relatives here. Mr. E. C. Hopper, of Latonia, spent several days with friends here.

Mr. Porter Stagg, of your city, spent Sunday with his father, Mr. Dan Stagg, who continues quite ill. Miss Florence Marcus, of Pleasureville, is visiting Miss Luisa Edington. Mr. Sam Lusk is at home from college with a severely sprained ankle.

—The friends of Mr. Perry Land were grieved to receive the shocking announcement of his sudden death. He has been a sufferer from rheumatism. The dreadful disease attacking his heart, caused his untimely death. His remains were placed in the family burial ground near Moreland. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn his loss. The community laments the deplorable death and it is impossible to give adequate expression to our deep feelings and assurance of our heartfelt sorrow.

—The friends of Mr. Perry Land were grieved to receive the shocking announcement of his sudden death. He has been a sufferer from rheumatism. The dreadful disease attacking his heart, caused his untimely death. His remains were placed in the family burial ground near Moreland. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn his loss. The community laments the deplorable death and it is impossible to give adequate expression to our deep feelings and assurance of our heartfelt sorrow.

—Come early and get the best at auction prices. Respectfully,

Stanford Female College.

J. M. HUBBARD, A. M., President.

Fall Session Tuesday, September 5th 1893.

Full corps of Conservatory and Normal School teachers. Superior courses in Literature, Music and Art. Excellent boarding department. Catalogues and circulars furnished on application.

Centre College Academy.

DANVILLE, KY.

The Next Session of this Institution Begins September 13, 1893.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., NOVEMBER 3, 1893

W. P. WALTON.

6 OR 8 PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Senator,

HON. W. H. MILLER.

For Representative,

HARVEY HELM.

For Superintendent of Public Schools,

W. F. McCRARY.

AFTER a parliamentary struggle, unprecedented and shameful in a country where the majority is supposed to rule, the Senate finally got down to a vote Monday night on the Sherman silver purchase repeal bill and passed it by a vote of 43 to 32 and the legislative day, which began Oct. 17, was declared ended. The result is a victory for the administration, but not for the democratic party, as without republican support the bill could not have been passed. An analysis shows that 23 republicans and 20 democrats voted for repeal, to 10 republicans, 19 democrats and three populists against. Senator Blackburn voted with the latter, thereby misrepresenting his people and making himself sure of being politically shelled in the near future. The bill will now go to the House, as it is somewhat different from the Wilson bill, where Bland and other silver lunatics will attempt to delay action, but the end is at last in sight. The financial sky is already clearing and when the president puts his autograph to the passed bill, public confidence will resume and a new impetus be given to trade and traffic all over the land. For which consummation devoutly to be wished let Grover Cleveland alone be praised.

LATER.—The obstructionists could not delay the inevitable but a day. The House again took up the Voorhees bill Wednesday and after a number of dilatory motions, Mr. Wilson moved the previous question and at 2:37 p. m. the roll was called resulting in the adoption of the bill as it came from the Senate by a vote of 192 to 94. All of the Kentucky delegation voted for repeal but Ellis and Goodnight, who dodged the question by not voting. The president signed the bill and the long drawn out struggle ended, let us hope, for peace and prosperity, with the year of jubilee close at hand.

THE Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, which has had fewer accidents than any of its length in the country, has prepared to reduce the number to the minimum. The block system went into effect Wednesday, under which each train, whether passenger or freight, must lay until the block ahead is reported clear by the operator at the other end. It will require a great many more telegraph offices, but the lives of passengers, the first desideratum with the road, will be protected and there will be fewer suits for damages. The C. & O. is always up, if not a little in advance, of the procession.

The Covington Commonwealth is now owned and controlled by J. R. Jameson and T. M. Gleason, who will maintain its high standard. The notice doesn't say, but we take it for granted that Mr. Walter P. Emerson will be retained as editor. At any rate the new management will stand in its own light, if it can get him and doesn't do so. As a paragraph Emerson has not a superior in the State, always excepting Emmett L. Johnson.

On our third page will be found the ticket for democrats to vote. You have only to place the cross mark under the rooster as we have done and your vote will be counted for Miller, Helm and McCrary. If you go to scratching you will get things mixed and your vote will likely be lost. A cross under the rooster is the quickest, surest and safest method.

The Old Liberty Bell, crack and all, is being taken from the Fair back to its abiding place in Philadelphia. It is under guard of a number of city councilmen and it will be exhibited at a general meeting.

If the Courier-Journal doesn't send Mary Jane to Stanford to write it up in her inimitable style, we are going to cut it off of our exchange list, in which event the great daily will be forced to suspend.

The assassin, Prendergast, has been indicted for murder. When the telegraph brings the intelligence that he has been hung for assassinating Chicago's mayor, the country will breathe freer.

Over 50,000 people followed the remains of Mayor Harrison to the Grace Land Cemetery at Chicago Wednesday, making the longest funeral procession ever seen in the United States.

Gov. McCREARY traveled 1,600 miles to register and was back in Washington in time to vote for the repeal bill. That's the kind of a representative to have.

HON. W. H. MILLER is the regularly nominated candidate of the democratic party for State Senator and as such is entitled to the support of every democrat in the district. In addition to this he is unusually well equipped for the duties of the office and will make one of the best members of the body. Let every democrat go to the polls Tuesday and vote for him. A cross under the rooster will cause your vote to be counted for him and the full democratic ticket. Be sure to place it there.

JOSHUA ASHER of Clay, is a man of troubles and acquainted with grief. He has two sons in the penitentiary and the other day while on his way to the trial of another for an offense that will also likely land him at Frankfort, his mule fell and so badly injured him that his recovery is doubtful. The old man realizes no doubt like David of old that bad boys are mighty disagreeable things to have in the family.

NEWSY NOTES.

—A Charlotte county, Va., mob put an end to the infamous career of Abb Richard Tuesday night.

—Mrs. Ette Sample poisoned her nine-year-old boy in Louisville and then tried to kill herself without avail.

—It is not to the credit of the South that but eleven of her Senators voted for repeal, while 17 voted against it.

—Gov. Brown has appointed Judge J. Crisp Wickliffe, of Bardstown, as the successor of Adjutant General Gross.

—The Masons have raised by subscription $1,000 to erect a monument over the grave of the late Hiram Bassett, of Millersburg.

—A Cincinnati thief robbed a penny-in-the-slot weighing machine of $18 in coppers. He must have had a wagon to haul away his haul.

—At Fort Sheridan, Ill., Lieut. Masse, U. S. A., shot and killed Capt. Hedburg, U. S. A. The two officers had quarreled over Mrs. Hedburg.

—A woman was beheaded in Berlin for murdering her husband. It was the first execution of a woman in the German capital since 1846.

—The relief committee at Brunswick, Ga., has withdrawn its appeal for help, furnishing a rather unusual instance in the history of epidemics.

—A New York cat, whose teeth had been knocked out by a rat, had a false set made for it by a dentist and wears them comfortably.

—Potter Palmer, of Chicago, has donated $200,000 for a Woman's Memorial Building in that city. He desires that it shall be on the lake front.

—The crime of the lunatic, Pendergast, seems to have been the signal for an organized movement on the part of the cranks in this country.

—A riot occurred when it was announced that the Ferris wheel must stop revolving so the president announced that it would run till Nov. 30.

—A. G. Gurney, a clerk of the American Express Co. at New Orleans, was arrested, charged with the theft of $22,500 from an express package containing $50,000.

—At Dallas, Texas, Charles Hampton fell into a cotton seed crusher and was ground to a pulp with the exception of one leg, which was thrown 50 feet up in the air.

—Three vases valued at $1,500 were stolen from the art gallery at the World's Fair. The vases were in the Japanese section in the east court of the center pavilion.

—A meteorological station, the highest in the world, has been established by Harvard University on the top of a nearly extinct volcano, 19,200 feet above sea level in Peru.

—The price of silver Monday was 70 cents an ounce, at which figure 50,000 ounces were added to the stock in the treasury. This is a decline of 41 cents during the present month.

—Harry O'Dye, of Indianapolis, committed suicide by taking morphine because he lost his job. After taking the dose he prayed until he became unconscious for the welfare of his wife.

—Postmaster General Bissell's estimates of the appropriations required for the postal service for the next fiscal year aggregate $90,399,485. The appropriations for this year were $81,004,314.

—Miss Belle Knowles, of Belle Plains, Kas., killed herself because she was snubbed by society. The cause of her being snubbed was the too free use of intoxicants at a party at her own home.

—Mt. Sterling has contracted with a Pennsylvania company for a system of water-works. The company is under bond of $10,000 to begin work within the next 60 days and complete the job in 12 months.

—The warehouse of Bridgeford & Co., stove manufacturers, Louisville, was partially destroyed by fire and all its contents ruined. The damage was estimated to be about $65,000 and the insurance $52,800.

—West Virginia has definitely determined to remove her exhibit at the World's Fair to Charleston as a nucleus for a permanent museum and she will probably remove her State building there to hold her collection.

—N. J. N. Barron, a London merchant, committed suicide by shooting himself. Mr. Barron is the man who formed the Middlesboro Town Lands Co. and was also the promoter of the Barron syndicate which made fictitious purchases of American lands. His death is the cause of little or no regret.

—Miss Nannetta Daisy, the erratic Louisville female who ran for State librarian a few years ago, has founded a colony in the Cherokee strip. In her colony no man is allowed to enter or even to own any property. It is entirely settled by women and all business is carried on by them.

—Andrew Hayes, an Atlanta negro arrested for assaulting his mistress, confessed that he killed another negro nine years ago, later on knocked a woman in the head and still later shot a man. He said that he wanted to be hung for his evil deeds and it is sincerely to be hoped that he will be accommodated.

—Baltimore's mayor, Franklin and Latrobe, is scared up lest he be treated in a manner similar to that of the lamented Carter Harrison. An anonymous letter was received by him which threatened him with instant death if he failed to provide employment for the idle working men of that city. The police have the letter and are trying to work up the case.

—The World's Columbian Exposition closed officially Monday. The paid admissions the last day were 208,173 and the grand total for the six months is 21,417,212. The free admissions increase the attendance to 23,529,400. The gate receipts were a little over $10,000,000 and the concessions have paid about $4,000,000. The cost of the Fair has been $30,588,849. There will be at least $1,000,000 to return to the stockholders.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Edlers J. L. Allen and J. G. Livingston have just closed a 10-days meeting at Kingsville, which resulted in winning 16 souls into the fold.

—Rev. Geo. O. Barnes will not open his meeting in Lexington until Sunday week on account of having received a call to Alexandria, Paris, Kentucky.

—Rev. W. A. Slaymaker is holding a protracted meeting in Harrison county. It is rumored that Mr. Slaymaker will give up the church here, but we hope it is untrue.

—Rev. J. H. Herson, a Methodist preacher stationed at Owingsville, has renounced his faith and united with the Christian church. The former's loss is not the latter's gain.

—Rev. Wm. Wilkerson, of Minneapolis, Minn., says it would be a disgrace to waste law on the assassin of Carter Harrison and that he should be hung at the earliest moment.

—The devout Presbyterians were again prevented from worshipping Wednesday night by the failure of the electric lights. Oughtn't the company either to see to this matter or provide the church with lamps?

—Rev. J. M. Bruce is making a gratifying success of Liberty College, Glasgow. In his report to the State Association he shows that there are 30 boarders and 101 day pupils enrolled to date. The school is a good one and Mr. Bruce is the right man to conduct it.

—Rev. G. W. Dunlap is holding a meeting at Falmouth and in a letter to the Covington Commonwealth says "for the benefit of any who may care to hear that my health suffers as the weather changes. The old time vigor is gone, but I intend to fight to the end, and do the best I can to be ready when the King cometh in."

—Rev. K. T. Matthews, who has been pastor of the Main street Christian church at Lexington for nine years, has tendered his resignation because of trouble among the female members of the choir, which extended into the congregation. The dissension created two factions, one of which was hostile to the pastor and which has made it hot for him for some time.

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—The Ladies' Aid Society are raising funds to put up a new fence around the cemetery.

—Mr. Thomas Austin, deputy collector, was here from Garrard during the week. The White City visitors have all returned and are more or less afflicted with colds.

—In the Texas display in the woman's building at the Fair we noticed some fine and valuable lace and Spanish drawn work from the hands of Mrs. Belle Maret Cayee, of San Antonio.

—Dr. E. J. Brown and W. S. Newcomb had a lively experience in the mob on Midway Plaisance Saturday night, when thirty thousand lunatics (not counting those mentioned above) played havoc with signs, etc., along the line, beating tin pans, blowing trumpets and otherwise raising old Cain. It required the police force four hours to disperse them and restore harmony.

—Saturday afternoon at Wildie W. L. Vallandingham, express agent, was shot and painfully wounded by Pat Taylor. The latter had ordered a jug brought by express. He went to the depot and called for it. The agent was busy and told him he would wait upon him soon. This didn't satisfy Taylor, who drew his pistol and demanded immediate delivery.

—The warehouse of Bridgeford & Co., stove manufacturers, Louisville, was partially destroyed by fire and all its contents ruined. The damage was estimated to be about $65,000 and the insurance $52,800.

—The horse brand is a permanent fixture in the stable of the Louisville and Southern Railroad.

—JOHNSON'S MAGNETIC OIL! Instant Killer of Pain. Internally and External. Coughs, Colds, Neuralgia, Limb Back, Sprains, Bruises, Swellings, Stiff Joints, Colic and Rheumatism instantly. "Cures" Headaches, Colds, If by means of Inhalation.

—THE HORSE BRAND. Especially prepared for Stock. Doubtless Strongest, Thoroughly Proven and Permanent Remedy for the Horse.

—JOHNSON'S ORIENTAL SOAP. Medicated and Talcated. The Great Skin Cure and Face Beautifier. Ladies will find it a most delicate and highly perfumed Toilet Soap on the market. It is absolutely pure. Makes the skin healthy, vivacious and elastic. The complexion is a delight for the Bath for Infants. It always helps to cleanse the scalp and promotes the growth of hair. Price 25c. For sale by

A : GREAT : SUCCESS

Was our Grand Triumphant week but we will not stop at this point. We will still continue to slaughter our goods right and left until every dollar's worth of Dry Goods, Notions, Clothing, Shoes, Boots, Hats, Caps, Carpets, Trunks, &c., are sold. Don't forget, 'tis

MONEY WE WANT,

And money we must have, and with your money you can make money. Read our prices and you can see that we can sell you goods cheaper than our competitors can buy them. All calicos such as Indigo Blue, Simpson's Black and Gray's Manchester, fancy and all other standard prints go at 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ c per yd. Good Lancaster ginghams at 5c a yd., worth 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ c; good oil red table linen 25c, worth 40c, the best table linen made 35c, worth 50c.

READ the PRICES ON FLANNELS

All wool red flannel 20c, 25c and 35c; either is worth 10c more per yd. White flannel 10c, 20c and 25c, worth nearly double the money. In Canton Flannels we take the lead, and we sell you a good quality at 5c, worth 8c, a better grade at 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ c, worth 10c, and the best at 10c, worth 15c. Remember we sell the Best Imported Zephyrs at 5c per Oz.

All wool yarns at 65c per pound. If you need any Comforts and Blankets they are almost given away. Comforts 50c, 75c and $1, worth double money; blankets 75c, 90c and $1.15 a pair that you can not duplicate for double the money. Remember our clothing, shoes and all other goods are put in this slasher sale, but as they are too numerous to mention we can not note you all prices. All we ask is that you call and examine our stock and we guarantee it will be money in your pocket.

THE : LOUISVILLE : STORE.

A. URBANSKY & CO., STANFORD, KY.

John Jones sold to Prewitt & Wood a bunch of fat heifers and steers at 3 cents.

H. S. Halley bought at Versailles on court day a bunch of good cotton mules at $20.50.—Georgetown Times.

Sims T. Cobb sold the Parrish farm containing 118 acres to Calvin East, of Garrard county at $90. It lies four miles from Richmond.—Climax.

Naboth won the free-for-all at Danville Wednesday in the fast time of 2:19. Alice Wilkes, pacer, was second. Naboth will be turned out for the Winter and will be raced again next year.

Clifford, the three-year-old son of Bramble and the winner of five cup races in one year, won the special sweepstakes race arranged for him, Yo Tambien and Lamplighter. He went the mile and a quarter in 2:09 and almost distanced Lamplighter.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

PUBLIC SALE!

As agent of Mrs. S. M. Black on MONDAY, NOV. 11, 1893, in front of the Courthouse door in Stanford, at 11 o'clock, A. M., I will sell 20 Shares First Nat. Bank Stock to the highest and best bidder. Terms made known on day of sale. KOHL C. MASON, Agent.

PUBLIC SALE

OF

PERSONAL PROPERTY

I will sell at public sale on

TUESDAY, NOV. 14, 1893,

At the late home of Miss Kate Swope, deceased, the following personally, to-wit:

Fifty-six first-class Ewes, 41 nice, fat hogs, 27 nice, fat shotes, 4 good milk cows, 5 nice 2-year-old steers, 13 nice yearling calves, 1 good lamb, more, gentle, for any one to drive, 1 1/2 year old horses, 1 yearling gelding, 1 1/2 year old mare, 1 1/2 year

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., NOVEMBER 3, 1893

W. P. WALTON.

THROUGH SLEEPING CARS

VIA BIG FOUR ROUTE TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

We all love comfort, especially when traveling, and what a great comfort it is to be able to take a sleeping car at your own home which runs right through to Chicago without change and lands passengers at the entrance gate of the great World's Fair without a single change or transfer of any kind. How can this be accomplished? Why simply by asking your local agent for a ticket via the Big Four Route, which is absolutely the only line running through sleeping cars in connection with the E. T. V. & G. Railway and Queen & Crescent Route direct to the World's Fair Grounds and landing passengers convenient to the World's Fair Hotel District. Through Sleeping Car leaves Macon 11:15 A. M., Atlanta 2:10 P. M., Rome 4:55 P. M., Chattanooga 7:25 P. M., and arrives at Chicago 5:15 P. M. Ask for tickets via Big Four Route and for further information address D. B. Martin, General Passenger Agent, Cincinnati.

N. & W. Norfolk & Western R.R.

Schedule Sept. 1, 1893

LEAVE NORFOLK DAILY

10:15 A. M. for Graham, Bluefield, Pocahontas, Lynching, Richmond and Norfolk.

Sleeping Cars from Bluefield to Norfolk and Radford, also from Lynchburg to Richmond.

Trains for Pocahontas, Pocahontas and Goods will leave Bluefield daily at 7:00 A. M., 1:05 P. M. and 6:00 P. M.

Leave Bluefield 7:00 A. M. and 6:00 P. M. daily for Kenova and Columbus, O., Chicago and all points West. Pullman-leaves 9:00 P. M. in car C. H. C. cage.

Additional trains for Welsh and Intermediate stations on Bluefield leave Bluefield 6:00 P. M. daily.

To and from at Norfok from the East daily at 5:30 P. M.

For further information as to schedules, rates &c apply to agents of Norfolk & Western R.R. road.

Gen. Pass. Agt. Rankin, Va.
T. F. Bragg,
Tele. Pass. Agent.

IF YOU ARE GOING.....

NORTH OR WEST.

THE

Is the line for you, as its

Double Daily Trains

Make close connections at

LOUISVILLE AND CINCINNATI

For all points,
THROUGH TICKETS SOLD.

RAILROAD CHECKED THROUGH

For information inquire of JOES RICE, Agent, Stanford, Ky.

Or, W. W. PENN, Trav. Pass. Agent, Junction C. T., Ky.

CHESAPEAKE & OHIO

RAILWAY.

Washington, Philadelphia

Baltimore, New York,

And all other Eastern Cities.

Shortest Line between Louisville, Lexington and Eastern Points.

In Effect Nov. 1, 1893.

EAST BOUND Arr. Lexington

Atlantic Express, No. 22, daily 7:00 A. M.

Million Air Conditioning, No. 26, ex. Sun. 11:00 A. M.

Verde Express, No. 24, daily 1:00 P. M.

Lexington Express, No. 28, ex. Sun. 4:00 P. M.

Verde Express, No. 32, daily 6:00 P. M.

WEST BOUND Arr. Lexington

Lexington Express, No. 27, ex. Sun. 7:00 A. M.

Million Air Conditioning, No. 29, ex. Sun. 11:00 A. M.

Verde Express, No. 30, ex. Sun. 1:00 P. M.

Lexington Express, No. 34, ex. Sun. 4:00 P. M.

Verde Express, No. 38, ex. Sun. 6:00 P. M.

Shortest Trains with Dining Cars. No. 22 transients. Through Sleepers from Lexington without change.

H. W. FULLER, C. B. RYAN, Ass't Gen. Pass. Agt., Washington, D. C.

CURES RISING

BREAST

"MOTHER'S FRIEND" is the greatest blessing ever offered child-bearing woman. I have been a wife for many years, and in each case where I have used "Mother's Friend" I have accomplished wonders and relieved much suffering. It is the best remedy for rising of the breast known, and worth the price for that alone.

Mrs. M. M. BRISTER, Montgomery, Ala.

I can tell all expectant mothers if they will go to few bottles of "Mother's Friend" they will go through the ordeal with less pain and suffering.

Mrs. MAY BRISTER, Argusville, N. D.

Used Mother's Friend before birth of my eighth child. Will never cease its praise.

Mrs. J. F. MOON, Colusa, Cal.

Sent by express, charges prepaid, on receipt of price, $1.50 per bottle.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO.

Sold by all druggists.

ATLANTA, GA.

General address:

WILBUR & SMITH, LEXINGTON, KY.

Corporation.

Commercial College of KY. UNIVERSITY, KY.

"Cheapest & Best Business College in the World."

"Second Best Business College in the World."

"Business College in the World."

</div

IN DIXIE'S LAND

BEFORE THE WAR.

BY JAS. FRANKLIN FITTS.

[TO BE CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER III. MY FAIRY PRINCE.

I name him as he appeared to me in the two hours that followed. He came like the benign spirit of some old fairy tale, bearing to me bright promise for the future. Now, when long years have passed, with all the full, strange record with which this narrative deals, I can think of the hour and the man in no other way. It was my hour of promise—he was my fairy prince.

"Bostock!" said my father, holding out his hand. "Little Pierce Bostock? Why it don't seem possible."

"Yes, that reminds me, Amos, of how we used to wrestle, side hold. You used to throw me."

"I don't think I could do it now," said my father.

"I reckon not, Amos. Well, my old chum, I'm mighty glad to see you. Will you believe it, Amos?—being in Boston for the very first time since I went south, the thought struck me to come up here, and hunt up old friends and schoolmates. There's few of them left; and I'm right glad I've found you."

"I feel flattered by your remembrance and your kindness, Pierce. It's but a poor hospitality I have to offer you; but you're welcome to it. Come to the house, and we'll sit down and talk over old days."

"We'll have to talk fast, Amos. I've mortgaged my time at the north, and I must leave Boston to-morrow. I can give you two hours only. This is your boy, eh?—fine, manly fellow. What's his name?—Dorr? Why, is it possible you called him after my father?"

"Indeed I did, Pierce. You remember how kind he was to me. The boy's name is Dorr Hostock Jewett."

"Now I like that; I'll not forget it. Come along to the house as you said."

His beaming smile captivated me; as we walked along, while he busily talked with my father, he playfully shoulder'd my hoe, and took hold of my hand. Arrived at the house, my mother was introduced.

It was the first exhibition of high-bred politeness I had ever seen, and it impressed me. In the life that I had been living, duty and labor went for everything, courtesy was scant enough. Mr. Bostock removed his hat, gently took my mother's hand, and bowed very low.

"Extremely glad to meet you, madam. Your husband is my oldest and dearest friend, though I've seen nothing of him since we were mere lads."

"Sit down, sir, and make yourself comfortable," said my mother. "Will you stay to tea?"

"Thank you—I shall not have time," he replied, looking at a massive-cased gold watch. "The train leaves the village at seven; it's almost five now."

"If you were raised in New Hampshire, perhaps you haven't forgotten how to eat mush and milk."

"Why, bless me, madam, can you give me a bowl of it? My old nigger cooks up corn bread, corn cake and all kinds of corn fixings, but they can't make mush. I'd like it above all things."

With a napkin under his fat chin, our jolly guest sat at the table, partaking with evident relish of the simple entertainment that was set before him. He was a keen observer, notwithstanding his easy, careless way, and I think that nothing had escaped his notice. Never had the house and its furnishings seemed as shabby to me as now.

"Heg pardon, Amos; but you know everything is permitted between old friends. You don't thrive well here."

"No," said my father, "and I fear I never shall. You remember something about this old place; twenty acres out of the thirty no better than a stone quarry. Bad luck has followed me; I've had bad seasons, slim crops, sickness and debt. It's a hard struggle, almost a hopeless one."

"I'm sorry for you, Amos; from the bottom of my soul I am. I don't know of a fellow who deserved good fortune ahead of you. If you'd struck out when I did, you'd have succeeded anywhere. New England is a good place to rear men, but no place at all for them to spread, you know. I don't brag, but I've got a right to point with some pride to what I've done since I saw these hills last."

"You are at the south, I infer," said my father.

"I've one thousand acres of the best cotton land in Mississippi below Vicksburg. I plant every acre of it; and I raise sugar in Louisiana."

"I hope you're not a slaveholder, sir," said my mother.

"O, I've a few niggers—hardly a hundred. I've had to hire some the last season."

At the horrified looks of my mother and the painful silence of my father Mr. Bostock wiped his mouth and laughed.

"I'd like to have you come down and see some of those lazy cattle imposed upon me. But, dash it all, Amos, I haven't time to discuss the institution, and it wouldn't do, either—we should quarrel. Of course you're an abolitionist. I remember you in the old days; you were cut out for one. Let's talk about something else."

"You have a family, of course, Pierce?"

"My wife died a few years ago. I've one, child, Coralie, a little witch of seven. I've a great house, which is run by the servants. I know all about the plantation, but I haven't much control inside. Everything is lavish, and it's a wonder to me, sometimes, that I'm not a poor man. But come down, and you'll find hospitality enough."

For more than an hour he talked, interrupted only by an occasional question or exclamation. I did not observe then—long afterward I had occasion to recall the fact—that he parried several attempts of my parents to draw him out about his deceased wife and his daughter. He talked interestingly, almost eloquently, about the cultivation of cotton, the scenes in the immense fields when the picking time arrived, the ginning, the baling and the "shooting" down the long incline to steamboat. To me it was all a new revelation; I listened with all my senses.

He turned to me briskly with the question:

"Well, my lad, how would you like to go down and see all this for yourself?"

"Above all things, sir."

"I say, Amos, why not send him down to me, after a few years? I'll put him in the way to be rich."

I sat with clasped hands, eagerly looking from one to the other of my parents. Their hearts were touched by the thought of parting with me, and by the generous interest of Mr. Bostock.

"I mean it, Amos. I've taken a notion to the boy, and I'd like to have him with me. To be sure, I'm a slaveholder, but there's lots of more dangerous animals in the woods than the unfortunate man who has to feed and clothe a parcel of lazy niggers. You needn't hurry; keep him a few years yet; send him to school; and by and by send him down to me, via Cincinnati, Cairo and Vicksburg. I'll take care of him, and give him such a start in the world as he'll never get up this way. I'll never forget what I'm saying, Amos. What, do you say?"

"Your kindness quite overpowers me, Pierce. I'll think seriously of it, and talk it over with the boy and his mother."

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor oil.

When she was a child, she cried for Castor oil.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor oil.

When she had children, she gave them Castor oil.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

"All right, my old friend; the thing is as good as done. Now my time is about up. Don't get crazy over politics, Amos, and don't take Dorr to your abolition meetings. Let me have a pen and ink and I'll put down my address for you."

He took from his pocket a narrow blank book, wrote rapidly upon a leaf of it, tore out the leaf, thrust it into my father's hand, and had said his fare-well and was out of the house with aelerity that was really bewildering.

My father looked at the paper. It shook in his hand; he turned pale. He could not speak, but held the paper toward us. My mother took and read it, while I looked over her shoulder. The leaf was from a blank check book. On the stub he had written his address; the body was a check on a Boston bank, payable to the order of Amos Jewett for one thousand dollars!

"I can't take it—I really must not," said my father. "Dorr, go and tell him so."

I ran out of the house. Mr. Bostock was already one hundred yards off laying the lash on the horse. I shouted to him:

"Sit down, sir, and make yourself comfortable," said my mother. "Will you stay to tea?"

"Thank you—I shall not have time," he replied, looking at a massive-cased gold watch. "The train leaves the village at seven; it's almost five now."

"If you were raised in New Hampshire, perhaps you haven't forgotten how to eat mush and milk."

"Why, bless me, madam, can you give me a bowl of it? My old nigger cooks up corn bread, corn cake and all kinds of corn fixings, but they can't make mush. I'd like it above all things."

With a napkin under his fat chin, our jolly guest sat at the table, partaking with evident relish of the simple entertainment that was set before him. He was a keen observer, notwithstanding his easy, careless way, and I think that nothing had escaped his notice. Never had the house and its furnishings seemed as shabby to me as now.

"Heg pardon, Amos; but you know everything is permitted between old friends. You don't thrive well here."

"No," said my father, "and I fear I never shall. You remember something about this old place; twenty acres out of the thirty no better than a stone quarry. Bad luck has followed me; I've had bad seasons, slim crops, sickness and debt. It's a hard struggle, almost a hopeless one."

"I'm sorry for you, Amos; from the bottom of my soul I am. I don't know of a fellow who deserved good fortune ahead of you. If you'd struck out when I did, you'd have succeeded anywhere. New England is a good place to rear men, but no place at all for them to spread, you know. I don't brag, but I've got a right to point with some pride to what I've done since I saw these hills last."

"You are at the south, I infer," said my father.

"I've one thousand acres of the best cotton land in Mississippi below Vicksburg. I plant every acre of it; and I raise sugar in Louisiana."

"I hope you're not a slaveholder, sir," said my mother.

"O, I've a few niggers—hardly a hundred. I've had to hire some the last season."

At the horrified looks of my mother and the painful silence of my father Mr. Bostock wiped his mouth and laughed.

"I'd like to have you come down and see some of those lazy cattle imposed upon me. But, dash it all, Amos, I haven't time to discuss the institution, and it wouldn't do, either—we should quarrel. Of course you're an abolitionist. I remember you in the old days; you were cut out for one. Let's talk about something else."

"You have a family, of course, Pierce?"

"My wife died a few years ago. I've one, child, Coralie, a little witch of seven. I've a great house, which is run by the servants. I know all about the plantation, but I haven't much control inside. Everything is lavish, and it's a wonder to me, sometimes, that I'm not a poor man. But come down, and you'll find hospitality enough."

For more than an hour he talked, interrupted only by an occasional question or exclamation. I did not observe then—long afterward I had occasion to recall the fact—that he parried several attempts of my parents to draw him out about his deceased wife and his daughter. He talked interestingly, almost eloquently, about the cultivation of cotton, the scenes in the immense fields when the picking time arrived, the ginning, the baling and the "shooting" down the long incline to steamboat. To me it was all a new revelation; I listened with all my senses.

He turned to me briskly with the question:

"Well, my lad, how would you like to go down and see all this for yourself?"

"Above all things, sir."

"I say, Amos, why not send him down to me, after a few years? I'll put him in the way to be rich."

I sat with clasped hands, eagerly looking from one to the other of my parents. Their hearts were touched by the thought of parting with me, and by the generous interest of Mr. Bostock.

"I mean it, Amos. I've taken a notion to the boy, and I'd like to have him with me. To be sure, I'm a slaveholder, but there's lots of more dangerous animals in the woods than the unfortunate man who has to feed and clothe a parcel of lazy niggers. You needn't hurry; keep him a few years yet; send him to school; and by and by send him down to me, via Cincinnati, Cairo and Vicksburg. I'll take care of him, and give him such a start in the world as he'll never get up this way. I'll never forget what I'm saying, Amos. What, do you say?"

"Your kindness quite overpowers me, Pierce. I'll think seriously of it, and talk it over with the boy and his mother."

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor oil.

When she was a child, she cried for Castor oil.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor oil.

When she had children, she gave them Castor oil.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor oil.

When she was a child, she cried for Castor oil.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor oil.

When she had children, she gave them Castor oil.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor oil.

When she was a child, she cried for Castor oil.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor oil.

When she had children, she gave them Castor oil.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor oil.

When she was a child, she cried for Castor oil.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor oil.

When she had children, she gave them Castor oil.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor oil.

When she was a child, she cried for Castor oil.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castor oil.

When she had children, she gave them Castor oil.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt sores, fever sores, blisters, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions and positively cures piles, or no money refunded. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 15 cents per box.

For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

A. B. Robertson & Brother.

DANVILLE, : : KY.

Hard Times Sale!

—OF FINE—

DRESS GOODS.

As advertised last week we put out an immense lot of handsome all wool novelty dress goods, 50 inches wide at 67½c that were made to sell at $1.25 per yard. These have been almost entirely sold and in order to give our friends who have not been down an equal chance we have selected a lot of our $1.50 and $1.25 dress goods and put them all out at

67 1-2 Cents

Per Yard. These are even better than the first lot and each and all have been sold over our counters at $1.50 and $1.25 per yard.

$15 for $5

We have seven Dress Patterns of finest real Scotch made novelty Dress Patterns that sold at $15 that go in this sale at $5. Also vidour De Russie and several other weaves that were $15 to $20 all go now at $5 a suit.

OTHER NOVELTIES.

We also have about 15 extra fine novelty dress patterns in single dress lengths that were $14, $15, $16.50 and $18 that we offer at $6.50 buys a novelty pattern that was $23.

PIECE GOODS.

67½c 54 Jauquards worsteds have been $1.35.
67½c 52 navy and brown serge have been $1.
75c 54 myrtle hop sacking have been $1.

$1.44 inch silk and wool novelties have been $2.

$1.54 in illuminated diagonals have been $1.50.

We always have prices cheap but we have never before offered dress goods at such prices. Remember that all of the goods in this sale are the very finest qualities, while the prices are no more than you have been paying for very ordinary qualities.

New Cloaks and Capes.

We have been receiving new wraps every day for ten days past and are showing a great many entirely novel designs. The hard times has not hurt our sales one bit because we have such a choice line and offer them so low that it is as easy to buy and pay for as in flush times. You cannot find such an assortment of Cloaks in central Ky., as we show you. You will be surprised at when you see them. We have sold their duplicates at $13. Ladies and misses' fine cloth jackets, with new collars and skirts and fur-trimmed at $7.50. Fine black diagonal jackets at $8.75. Dozens of new shapes at $10, 12.50, 15, 17.50 and 20 that we can not take space to describe.

OUR $5 CLOAKS

CAPES.

33 inch full coney fur capes 5.00.
32 inch fine coney fur capes 10.00.
22 inch Gray Krimmer Fur Capes 10.00.
New Circular Fur Trimmed Capes 10.00.
Silk Trimmed Mourning Capes 12.50.
Braid, Satin and Fur Trimmed Capes 15.00.
Elegant Mourning Capes 15.00 to 19.00.

Real Wool Seal Fur Capes at only $5.00.

A. B. Robertson & Bro.
Danville, Ky.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

SANFORD, KY., NOVEMBER 3, 1893

E. C. WALTON, Business Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

Buy your school books and school supplies of all kinds at A. R. Penny's.

WATCHES, clocks and jewelry repaired and warranted. Engraving a specialty, at A. R. Penny's.

The largest stock of Drugs, Medicines, Perfumery, Paints and Wall Paper at A. R. Penny's. Prescriptions a specialty.

PERSONAL POINTS.

Wm. Catron, of Pulaski, was here this week.

Mr. H. M. Powers returned from Chicago Tuesday night.

Miss VIRGELINE BALLARD returned to Marion Wednesday.

Miss ETTA YEAGER, of Boyle, is visiting her cousin, Miss Mary Bruce.

P. W. GREEN went with Cleo Reynolds home to take a big hunt with him.

Mr. E. C. BRADLEY, of Harrodsburg, the lightning contractor, is attending court this week.

Mr. GEORGE HIATT and wife, of Mt. Vernon, are visiting Mrs. Nannie Hiatt and other relatives here.

Mr. AND MRS. JOE SEVERANCE and Sam Walton Severance went to Shelby to see the knot well tied.

Mrs. LOIS SHANKS returned from Shelby yesterday, where she went to attend the wedding of her niece.

Mrs. W. B. O'BANNON and children went to Brodhead Wednesday to visit her brother, Mr. T. J. Frith.

W. R. FRETWELL has been made conductor on the coal train on the Clear Creek Branch.—Middlesboro News.

Mrs. J. C. FLORENCE and Miss Lizzie Davison came down from Cumberland Gap Wednesday to make this their future home.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN H. KIRBY, of Lancaster, were over to see Mayor and Mrs. D. W. Vandever Wednesday and looked as happy as turtle doves.

The current Illustrated-Kentuckian contains the picture of Miss Emma Gano in her galaxy of beauty. She is a daughter of Gen. Gano, of Dallas, Texas, and niece of Col. Welch, of this place.

Mrs. ELIZA PORTMAN and daughter, Mrs. Lizzie McAllister, have moved to the Curtis Watts house on Lancaster street and Misses Maggie and Jennie Hocker, who purchased the house they vacated, have moved into it.

Miss Rose JONES, of Stanford, is the pleasant guest of Misses May and Eva Talbot.—Winchester Democrat. The same paper says that Misses Jennie and Dovie Carpenter have left that city after a four years' sojourn and will probably locate at Hopkinsville.

Miss MARY CLAY THOMPSON returned to Louisville Tuesday after a delightful stay of several months with her cousins, the Misses Lackey. Miss Thompson is beautiful, winsome and lovable, and numerous hearts beat sadly as they realize that while her story was bright and lovely, it is past.

CITY AND VICINITY.

TRADE with Danks, the Jeweler.

The g. j. has gone. Now let the boys come home.

EVERYTHING in the jewelry line cheap for cash at Penny's.

Nick cottage on Mill street for rent. J. H. Baughman.

A new window display every day at Danks, the Jeweler's.

FULL line of heating stoves just received at Farris & Hardin's.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A traction engine in good repair. Apply at this office.

Mrs. E. T. ROCHESTER will sell her furniture and other personal effects Monday.

PLEASED to show the new goods even if you don't want to buy. Danks, the Jeweler.

Be up with the times and see the beautiful display of novelties at Danks, the Jeweler's.

We have a new and complete stock of rubber shoes for men, women and children. Severance & Son.

The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year, but so far November has been as bright and beautiful as October. Prof. Hicks warns us of a big storm, however, between the 7th and 10th.

Our reporters at Mt. Vernon and Brodhead send us important items that ought to have been sent for our Tuesday's paper. We want the news when it is fresh, gentlemen, so please don't do us so again.

J. R. BAILEY bought 220 acres of land recently adjoining Shirkertown, Mercer county, at $57. Part of it is the farm he was born on and now he has gone back there to live, taking with him the good wishes of many friends here.

LITTLE Josephine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Keller, Jr., had her left arm thrown out of place yesterday and her mother thought it was broken until she brought the little one to town, when the doctor soon had the member in proper position again.

New lot of Zeigler boots and shoes just received at S. H. Shanks'.

An elegant line of wedding present very cheap at A. R. Penny's.

INDICATIONS for Friday: "Generally fair, decidedly colder by evening."

CALL and see that line of heating stoves at W. H. Wearen & Co.'s before buying.

The McRoberts house, now occupied by T. M. White, will be for rent Jan. 1. W. H. Higgins.

These people are getting great bargains at Penny's in watches, clocks, jewelry and silverware.

At last the long-looked-for cloaks and wraps are here. Come and see them. Severance & Son.

ATTENTION HUNTERS.—A complete line of guns, rifles, loaded shells, hunting coats, all at bottom prices. W. B. McRoberts.

We are requested to state that it is only an open session of Turnersville Literary Society to be held to-morrow night, and not an "entertainment" as stated.

This newspaper will be our tax book after Oct. 31st. All property, regardless of ownership, on which the taxes are unpaid, will be advertised without further notice. J. N. Menefee, Sheriff.

A STANFORD man who excused to Milwaukee, Wis., from the Fair was so anxious for his friends to know he was so far from home that he wrote to several, dating his epistles at Milwaukee, Mich. And the worst of it is that he didn't realize his mistake even when told of it.

GEORGE REYNOLDS, who was arrested in Louisville on the charge of stabbing Bully Bill Newcomb at Brodhead, an account of which is given in our letter from that place, was taken to the scene of his crime. He confessed to the officer that he committed the deed, although at first protesting that he didn't do so.

We appeal to the democrats to go to the polls Tuesday next and vote for Miller, Helm and McClary. The two latter have no opposition but the republicans are putting in silent, but effective efforts for Lay. Every American citizen of African descent and every white republican will be out in force next Tuesday. Let the democrats be as patriotic and all will be well.

A CRITIC for bastardy was instituted yesterday by Miss Elise Lackowitz against Win. Hinters. The young woman claims that under a promise of marriage she yielded to the fellow's entreaties and a little one was the result. Hinters ran off when he found out the state of case and staid away till he heard the girl had married, thinking no more would be said of it, but he was mistaken, as the suit will stand. Miss Elise is Mrs. Levin now and while her husband has plenty of property, he doesn't want to support a bastard.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The grand jury finally adjourned Wednesday afternoon after finding 35 indictments, embracing nearly every offense known to the statute books, including incest. Green Guest, a Crab Orchard negro, was indicted for that crime on the oath of his daughter, Anna. He swore that he had forced her repeatedly to submit to his embraces. J. H. Carter was indicted for keeping his store open on Sunday. It Mr. Carter can be convicted of this nearly every store keeper in the county will be liable to prosecution for the same offense. The larger number of indictments as usual are for violating the liquor laws.

The suit of Isaac Hamilton against Engineers Napper, Keyer, Martin, Burgess, Stevenson and Meads for $648 for a hall he built for them and which they refused to take because it was not erected according to contract, resulted in a hung jury after occupying the court for four days and the jury being held for 24 hours longer. There were only 11 in the panel and they stood eight for the engineers and three for Mr. Hamilton. There were nearly a dozen lawyers in the case and that accounts for the length of the trial and the mystification of the jury.

W. S. Burch having passed a satisfactory examination, was granted license to practice law. He is a bright young man and we hope he will succeed in making himself famous and wealthy in his profession.

The case of W. B. Smith for embezzlement has been on trial for the last two days. Proctor & Idol, the Danville sewing machine men, had him indicted for misappropriating $100 of their funds and there has been several continuances in the case. Mr. Idol tells us that his firm has lost $6,000 to $7,000 by agents and unless some of them can be convicted they will have to quit business. The same firm had E. M. Cole indicted at this court for stealing $200 from them, but he has skipped to West Virginia.

Squire J. P. Land died suddenly at his home near Moreland, Monday night of apoplexy, aged 71. He was an honorable, upright man and had the respect and confidence of his community. A wife and four children survive him.

H. J. Tilford, head of the firm of Bartley, Johnson & Co., large Louisville whisky dealers, is dead of typhoid fever.

Sir John Abbott, the famous Canadian statesman, is dead.

NEW DRUG STORE.

I have bought the stock of goods of M. L. Bourne and thoroughly renovated the house and stock of goods and added full line of Drugs, Notions, Glass, Paints, Oils, etc. We are now thoroughly prepared to wait on our friends. We have a large stock of Spectacles.

Particular Attention Paid to Physicians' Prescriptions.

Best of Wines and Liquors for medicinal purposes. All of which we will sell at bottom prices. Give us a call.

Do not Forget This—1. We are always glad to see you. 2. No trouble to show goods. 3. If you don't see what you want, ask for it. 4. Lowest cash prices for the best goods. 5. Full assortment always on hand. 6. To please our customers is our greatest delight.

S. C. HOCKER, M. D.

W. L. CONNER, Reg. Pharmacist.

W. H. WEAREN & CO.

—Headquarters for—

STOVES & STOVE REPAIRS

Of all kinds. The most complete line of

HEATING : STOVES

Ever in Stanford. Prices according to the times.

—COMPETITION—

The Life of Trade.

All competent business men recognize this fact. Hence we court it from every direction and in every line.

WE CHALLENGE IT

In our Clothing, Cloaks, Boots and Shoes both for ladies and gentlemen, boys and children. In our Misses Cloaks we have no equal. Our Dress Goods, Silks, Velvets and Trimmings of every kind have been pronounced the best and as cheap as ever offered. Step by step we have climbed the Ladder of Public Favor and we have done so by selling good goods and making our word good when we sell them. It has always been our aim to conduct our business on business principles and we shall continue to do so even though we do not realize our expectations. We shall offer some

Special :- Inducements

this week, in every department. Our Dress Goods and Cloak Stocks are immense. Our Overcoat and shoe stock is too large and the public must help us to carry them. Our way is to give you more goods than your money is worth, and this we intend to do this week. Come and see and let us reason together about this matter.

HUGHES & TATE.

H. B. KING.

GEORGE B. PREWITT.

KING & PREWITT.

MORELAND, KY.,

We have opened up a nice line of Dry Goods, Notions, Dress Goods, Clothing Boots, Shoes, Hats, Groceries, Hardware,

We are daily receiving our Fall Goods, which we are marking down lower than ever.

Terms cash or country produce. Give us a call. We will save you money.

We are opening up a splendid line of Fall Millinery.

We have for sale 24 broke mules 4 years old.

KING & PREWITT.

DRUGS, BOOKS, AND SCHOOL : SUPPLIES.

Complete stock of Patent and Proprietary Remedies.

Prescriptions Carefully Compounded

Day or night, from the best drugs and chemicals.

